WHY NOT COME TO A MASS THIS WEEK ?

place to reduce risks and keep everyone as safe as possible.

OUR PROCEDURES AT S MICHAELS

You are required to observe Physical Distancing at all times.

You must by law only sit and mix with people from your own Household. Everybody must abide by this.

Once you have finished your time of prayer, you must immediately leave church. Outside must only talk and mix with people from your own household or outside in a public place with one other person. Appropriate Physical distancing should be observed.

On entering you should, register your visit with Test and Trace preferably using the App, the QR code is displayed at all of the entrances. If you still do not have the app you should enter your contact details in the folder by the door.

You must gel your hands on entering and leaving, and at other times in your visit, especially if you touch things likely to be used by others. You should gel your hands before receiving Holy Communion.

The law requires you to wear a face covering inside the church building.

If you do not fully abide by the above you will be asked to leave the church.

Under the Regulations for the current Lockdown we are advised that physical meetings can not take place, so the Standing Committee and the PCC can not meet.

We can not attend services. There are a number of areas which are unclear with regard to the advice and regulations, we will seek clarification on these as soon as we can.

The Church Hall is currently closed.
